FOURTH NOTICE OF DOCUMENTS IDENTIFIED FOR DISPOSAL

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, on August 30, 2007, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Court") entered an order (the "Order", Docket No. 31234) approving procedures (the "Document Disposal Procedures") for the disposal of certain documents from time to time in connection with the continued winding down of the businesses and chapter 11 cases of Enron Creditors Recovery Corp (f/k/a Enron Corp.) and certain of its affiliated reorganized debtor entities (collectively, the "Reorganized Debtors"). In summary, the Order allows the Reorganized Debtors, in the exercise of their business judgment, to dispose of any documents that they determine to be appropriate for disposal following ten (10) business days written notice, which notice must be served in accordance with the Court's Second Amended Case Management Order Establishing, Among Other Things, Noticing Electronic Procedures, Hearing Dates, Independent Website And Alternative Method of Participation at Hearing, dated December 17, 2002 (Docket No. 8403). A copy of the Order is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that, pursuant to the terms of the Order, unless a written objection is filed and served in accordance with the terms of the Order, the Reorganized Debtors will dispose of the documents listed on Exhibit A, attached hereto.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that, if an objection to this Notice is timely filed and served upon: (a) Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 700 Louisiana, Suite 1600, Houston, Texas 77002, Attention: Melanie Gray, Esq., counsel for the Reorganized Debtors and (b) Enron Creditors Recovery Corp., 1331 Lamar, Suite 1600, Houston, Texas 77010, Attention: Wade Cline, Esq., General Counsel, so that such objection is actually received not later than ten

(10) business days from the date hereof, the Reorganized Debtors shall seek a hearing to consider the objection at the Court's earliest convenience.

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF FROM REORGANIZED DEBTORS'
DOCUMENT RETENTION OBLIGATIONS AND APPROVING
DOCUMENT DISPOSAL PROCEDURES

Upon consideration of the Motion of Reorganized Debtors for Relief from Their Document Retention Obligations and for Approval of Document Disposal Procedures, dated August 1, 2007 (the "Motion"),¹ filed by Enron Creditors Recovery Corp. (f/k/a Enron Corp.) and certain of its affiliated reorganized debtor entities (collectively, the "Reorganized Debtors"), seeking entry of an order granting relief from the Reorganized Debtors' document retention obligations and approving certain document disposal procedures; and it appearing that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Reorganized Debtors, their estates, and their creditors; and notice of the Motion having been good and sufficient and no further notice of the relief requested in the Motion is required; and after due deliberation and cause appearing therefor, it is hereby

ORDERED that the Motion is granted in its entirety; and it is further

ORDERED that the Reorganized Debtors are authorized to dispose of the documents listed on Exhibit A to the Motion; and it is further

¹ Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Motion.

ORDERED that the Document Disposal Procedures are approved in all respects and the Reorganized Debtors are authorized to implement such procedures as follows:

- a. For each category or grouping of documents that the Reorganized Debtors determine, in the exercise of their business judgment, to be appropriate for disposal, the Reorganized Debtors shall file with the Court a notice identifying the categories or groupings of documents to be disposed of (“Document Disposal Notice”) and shall serve such notice in accordance with the Court’s Second Amended Case Management Order Establishing, Among Other Things, Noticing Electronic Procedures, Hearing Dates, Independent Website And Alternative Method of Participation at Hearing, dated December 17, 2002.
- b. The Document Disposal Notice shall be substantially in the form of the Document Disposal Notice attached as Exhibit B to the Motion and shall include a copy of this Order approving the Motion;
- c. If an objection to the Document Disposal Notice is filed and timely served upon, and actually received by, counsel to the Reorganized Debtors prior to the expiration of ten (10) business days from the filing of the Document Disposal Notice, the Reorganized Debtors will seek a hearing to consider the objection at the Court’s earliest convenience; and
- d. If no objection is timely received, the Reorganized Debtors would be authorized to dispose of the categories or groups of documents listed in the Document Disposal Notice;

provided, however, that the Reorganized Debtors may not dispose of any documents subject to the Newby Depository Order without further relief from the Texas District Court; and it is further ORDERED that the Reorganized Debtors are authorized to execute and deliver all instruments and documents, and take such other actions, as may be necessary or appropriate to implement and effectuate the Document Disposal Procedures as approved by this Order.
